Join AFH NYC and Build Real-World Skills!

Work with professional artists,
build creative skills, and earn money.

At Artists for Humanity (AFH), teens work in a variety of fine art and visual design mediums in a mentored studio setting. They work collaboratively with professional artists and designers, earning pay and learning new skills, all while providing creative services for prominent AFH clients.

In our NYC location, applicants can choose between two studios, Digital Media and Painting, during the application process.

No prior experience is required!
