 District Manager

May 2021 Full Board Minutes

Meeting Date / Location	The Full Board met on Wednesday, May 5, 2021, via Zoom Webinar. Chair Lowell Kern called the meeting to order at 6:32 pm after the District Manager confirmed the existence of a quorum. The meeting can be viewed on YouTube: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Av-fiFPJwLc
Presentations / Public Hearings	Presentation: NYC Campaign Finance Board on Ranked Choice Voting Allie Swatek, the Director of Policy and Research at the Campaign Finance Board, gave an overview of the ranked choice voting process. She explained that it would be used for the first time Citywide in the June 22 primary election for city offices and that it would not be extended to either state or federal elections. Neither would it be used for local races like district attorneys or judgeships. It allows voters to rank up to five candidates in order of preference, instead of just one. Ranked Choice Voting came about via a ballot question created by the 2019 Charter Revision Commission; it received a 73.5% YES vote by New York City voters. Ms. Swatek demonstrated the proper way to fill in a ballot and noted that voters should take care not to rank a candidate more than once and not to assign more than one candidate the same rank. Such ballots will be rejected by a ballot scanner during in-person voting but will be a problem for absentee voters. A winning candidate is one who receives more than 50% of first-choice votes. If no candidate receives more than 50% of first-choice votes, then counting will continue in rounds that result in the candidate with the least number of votes being eliminated. The process continues until there are only two candidates left and, the one with the most votes, wins. The Campaign Finance Board will partner with Borough President Brewer on a training panel on Tuesday, May 11 from 6:30 – 8:00 pm. Presentation: Land Use Application for The Windermere – 400 W. 57th Street J.D. Noland, the Chair of the Clinton/Hell’s Kitchen Land Use Committee, explained the application which is the subject of Agenda Item 1. The Windermere is a landmarked building located at the corner of Ninth Avenue and West 57th Street that was built in 1882. The owner of the building is seeking waivers that will allow its restoration and conversion into either a hotel or other commercial use, all subject to a cure imposed by HPD requiring the inclusion of affordable housing. No one from the public came forward to speak, so the hearing was closed.

Public Session
Lisa Wager	Ms. Wager is the Director of the Office of Government Relations at the Fashion Institute of Technology. She made the following announcements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • FIT has won a third consecutive award from the National Endowment for the Arts of $25,000 for STEM education to support sustainable programming through 2021. • The Annual School of Art and Design graduating student exhibition will go online on May 10. It presents the jury-award-winning and thesis project work of more than 500 student graduates in 16 areas of study, such as toy design, interior design, footwear and accessories design, packaging design, jewelry design, animation and interactive game design, and fashion design. • The FIT bachelor's degree Fashion Design Runway Show will go online on May 17. The show gets international media attention every year and, this year, it is accessible on the FIT website at https://www.fitnyc.edu/
Brian Weber	Mr. Weber spoke on behalf of the newly-constituted Midtown South Community Council. Its first meeting was held on April 27 and, going forward, meetings will be held on the fourth Tuesday of every month via Zoom.
Caitlin Ervin	Ms. Ervin is a staff associate with the New York State Nurses Association who works at Mt. Sinai West. She spoke about the addiction unit at her hospital being closed since January due to the pandemic and asked the Board to support her efforts in getting it reopened. She was advised to work with CB4 staff and the Housing, Health & Human Services Committee in that regard.
Jennifer Mallicote	Ms. Mallicote complained that she, as a member of the Midtown South Community Council before its recent reorganization, was not notified about the formation of a new group that would usurp hers as the new Community Council. She was advised to follow the process that was explained to the previous speaker and begin by communicating with CB4 staff.

Remarks from Elected Officials and Representatives
Senator Brad Hoylman	Senator Hoylman provided the following updates: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • He introduced legislation along with Assemblymember Gottfried called the Empire Station Complex Public Review Act. It would require that all land use decisions regarding the Complex be subject to the City's ULURP process, the same review process that all city agencies must adhere to when acquiring property and siting capital projects. The Act would cover the Governor's proposal to demolish full city blocks and build 10 high-rise buildings on the vacated property. Community Boards 4 and 5 will thus have a say on matters related to the project. • He held a Townhall with Assemblymember Rosenthal and Dr. Peter Marks who is the gatekeeper at the FDA for COVID-19 vaccines and the final sign-off for approval. The biggest takeaway from the event is that the currently approved vaccines work to protect against all known variants of the virus.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • He and ten Senate colleagues sent a letter to the management of the Metropolitan Opera asking that they come to an agreement with backstage workers and musicians who are currently locked out over contract disputes. • He introduced a bill that was passed in the Senate that would require state agency websites to be translated for non-English speakers. It calls for translation of the top twelve languages spoken by New York State residents, many of whom have been disproportionately impacted by the COVID-19 crisis. • The eviction moratorium that was passed earlier this session has been extended for both evictions and foreclosures until August 31. Efforts have now begun to distribute as soon as possible the $2.4 billion that was provided in the budget for emergency rental and utility assistance for income-eligible renters and commercial tenants. • Another important bill that Mr. Hoylman passed through committee is the Manhattan Mom and Pop Tax Relief Act. The bill is going to suspend the collection of a very unfair tax on our small businesses called the Commercial Rent Tax. The tax is only applied to businesses south of 96th Street in Manhattan because it was repealed everywhere else. • The Senator thanked his colleagues for their work on the budget and especially in getting an increase of $3.1 billion for aid to public schools. • There is a doubling in the budget for the New York City musical and theatrical production tax credit from $50 million, which the Governor proposed, to $100 million. The budget also includes an $800 million small business recovery grant program to assist small businesses that were affected by state-mandated lockdowns during the pandemic. The legislature also passed a $25 million restaurant resiliency grant program and a $35 million restaurant return-to-work tax credit.
Congresswoman Carolyn Maloney	Congresswoman Maloney gave these updates: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • She spoke about being one of the few guests at President Biden’s joint address to Congress and was thrilled to have a President who could deliver $1.9 trillion to the country through the American Rescue Plan. Most importantly, he focused on vaccinations; he had promised to have 100 million people vaccinated in his first 100 days and he surpassed that to 220 million. By the end of May, there are going to be enough doses to vaccinate everyone. There is funding now for pop-up vaccination centers, not only at hospital centers but community health centers as well. • The economy is picking up. The current GDP growth rate for the first quarter is 6.4% -- the highest it's been since she has been in office and is usually around the 3% rate. • On the American Rescue Plan, Ms. Maloney chaired the committee that oversaw $255 billion that went to cities and states in a manner that allowed for flexibility. This is the area where Democrats and Republicans fought the most, with Republicans not wanting to give any money to cities and states. When you combine everything that includes direct grants, the unemployment subsidy, the money for the MTA and small businesses, the PPP grants, and the money to help renters stay in their homes, that comes out to roughly $100 billion to New York State alone. • Coming up next is the American Jobs Plan that deals with the infrastructure that needs repair. It’s something that everyone always talks about but is now hoped will finally be passed.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • There is also the American Families Plan which will invest in our kids and our families, which Ms. Maloney has been fighting for during her entire career. The American Families Plan is a once-in-a-generation investment in the foundations of middle-class prosperity, education, healthcare, and childcare. For the first time, federal money will fund Pre-K for 3- and 4-year-old children across all of the City's five boroughs. • Within the American Jobs Plan, Ms. Maloney is pushing for an extension of the Second Avenue Subway up to 125th Street and, eventually, all the way down to the tip of Manhattan. Part of the $3 billion in the Plan would go to connecting the LIRR to Grand Central and making upgrades to the Terminal itself. She is also pushing for high-speed rail service between New York and Boston. • Ms. Maloney has been working on a bill for years that would ban all non-essential helicopter flights over New York City airspace. • Tomorrow, Ms. Maloney will chair a hearing on Black maternal health. Black women are three times more likely than white women to die in childbirth. She has a slew of initiatives and ideas on how to address this and make it happen. • Next week, she is chairing an oversight hearing on the January Sixth attack on the Capitol, where two major former Trump appointees will testify. The following day, there will be a hearing on the Post Office where the financial problems that they are confronting will be addressed.
Emily Bartosek for Assemblymember Linda Rosenthal	Ms. Bartosek gave the following updates: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ms. Rosenthal and Senator Serrano will be hosting a Shred Day Event on May 23 in front of our district office on West 72nd Street from 10 am to 2 pm. • Our office has begun receiving an influx of calls again about unemployment issues. The Department of Labor has put out a lot of mixed and confusing messaging about who needs to reapply at the end of their benefit year. So, we've been hearing from a lot of constituents that their benefits paused around March and that the DOL has to reset their accounts. We have asked the DOL to correct these issues • We also recently wrote a letter to Con Edison after we learned about a building where tenants have been without gas since October. There has been a gas repair that needs to be done, but Con Ed has been charging constituents $30 a month for a service fee. Con Ed claims that there is a policy that they follow that requires this and we, therefore, asked that this absurd policy be eliminated, and the impacted tenants are given a refund.
Borough President Gale Brewer	The Borough President provided her monthly updates: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • She has had two press conferences recently about the City refusing to open senior centers while it has opened other venues, such as gyms, restaurants, museums, movie theaters, and coffee shops. Seniors have been clamoring to get back into these vital facilities and she is not giving up trying to make that happen. • Her office has been working with the Board and others to resolve some of the public safety issues in the district but still has not been advised by the Department of Homeless Services as to when the temporary hotel shelters will be closed. She noted that the Mayor's Business District Recovery Initiative may improve public safety, but it does not include community stakeholders, including CB4. • She noted the increase in anti-Asian hate crimes around the City, including the ones on West 43rd Street and in front of Manhattan Plaza. Ms. Brewer is advocating for more funding and volunteer aid for the groups that support the

	Asian community. The office has sent letters to the Port Authority and hotels in the area seeking their help as well. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ms. Brewer complimented the Board for its work on the Empire Station Complex and is pleased that the Governor has finally gotten the message about our community's concerns. She added that the inclusion of open public space in the project is something that must be kept in mind. • She and Councilmember Rosenthal have introduced a bill regarding empty storefronts that includes mediation and is thus different from the ones that have been pending for the last 30 years. • There have been ongoing meetings every Tuesday at 3 pm concerning the issue of when stores and restaurants should be allowed to reopen. Most recently, the topic of liquor licenses was discussed as it relates to the amount of time it takes for the SLA to issue a liquor license after community board consideration. She asked that we seek clarification from the SLA on the reasons for its six-month lag time. • There is a big push for having as many high school graduations this year as possible and she complimented the Intrepid Museum for making its space available. • Ms. Brewer will be hosting an information session with the Campaign Finance Board on Tuesday, May 11 from 6:30-8:00 pm on ranked choice voting. Phillip Ellison for Public Advocate Jumaane Williams	Mr. Ellison stated that he was attending the meeting only as an observer but was available for questions.
