Fwd: Vesuvio Bakery & Pizzeria/Beer and Wine Application Hearing on October

Tue, Oct 3, 2023 at 8:01 AM

----- Forwarded message -----

From: Adam Block <block@vesuvio-bakery.com>
Date: Tue, Oct 3, 2023, 1:20 AM
Subject: Vesuvio Bakery & Pizzeria/Beer and Wine Application Hearing on October
To: Adam Block <block@well.com>

Dear Members of the Clinton/Hell's Kitchen Block Association:

I hope this e-mail finds you well. My name is Adam Block, the owner of Vesuvio Bakery & Pizzeria, and I am writing you today in reference to an upcoming application for a Beer & Wine License within the jurisdiction of Community Board 4. Despite it being a requirement that I reach out to you, I believe it is crucial to engage with the community and seek your valuable input before proceeding with this endeavor.

The purpose of this application is to enhance the offerings of Vesuvio Bakery, currently located within the Clinton/Hell's Kitchen neighborhood at 824 10th Ave (between 54th and 55th Street). My vision for Vesuvio Bakery is to expand its offerings by creating a welcoming, vibrant, price approachable, full-service pizzeria that will be open in the evenings seven days a week, from 5 pm to 11 pm. The Bakery, which opened in October of last year, will remain a limited service operation serving baked goods and coffee during the daytime hours between 7 am to 4 pm.

As part of my commitment to fostering a sense of community, I believe in open communication and transparency. I recognize the importance of obtaining the input, concerns, and support of our neighbors, and surrounding businesses in the process of obtaining a Beer & Wine License. My goal is to ensure that Vesuvio Bakery & Pizzeria not only complies with all relevant regulations but also supports and contributes to the overall experience of the neighborhood by providing a unique and enjoyable dining experience.

I am aware that the Block Association plays a vital role in representing the interest of the community, and I am eager to collaborate with you throughout this process. I am dedicated to addressing any concerns you may have and to working together to create a positive impact on our neighborhood.

I am scheduled to discuss the application during the Community Board 4 hybrid hearing next Tuesday, October 10th, at 6:30 pm, which you are welcome to attend. In the meantime, I would greatly appreciate the opportunity to speak with any of the members of the Block Association to review our plans, answer questions, and listen to your feedback.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I am enthusiastic about the opportunity to contribute positively to the community, and I believe that with your support and input, we can achieve this goal together. I can be reached by e-mail at block@vesuvio-bakery.com or on my cell at (415) 760-8156.

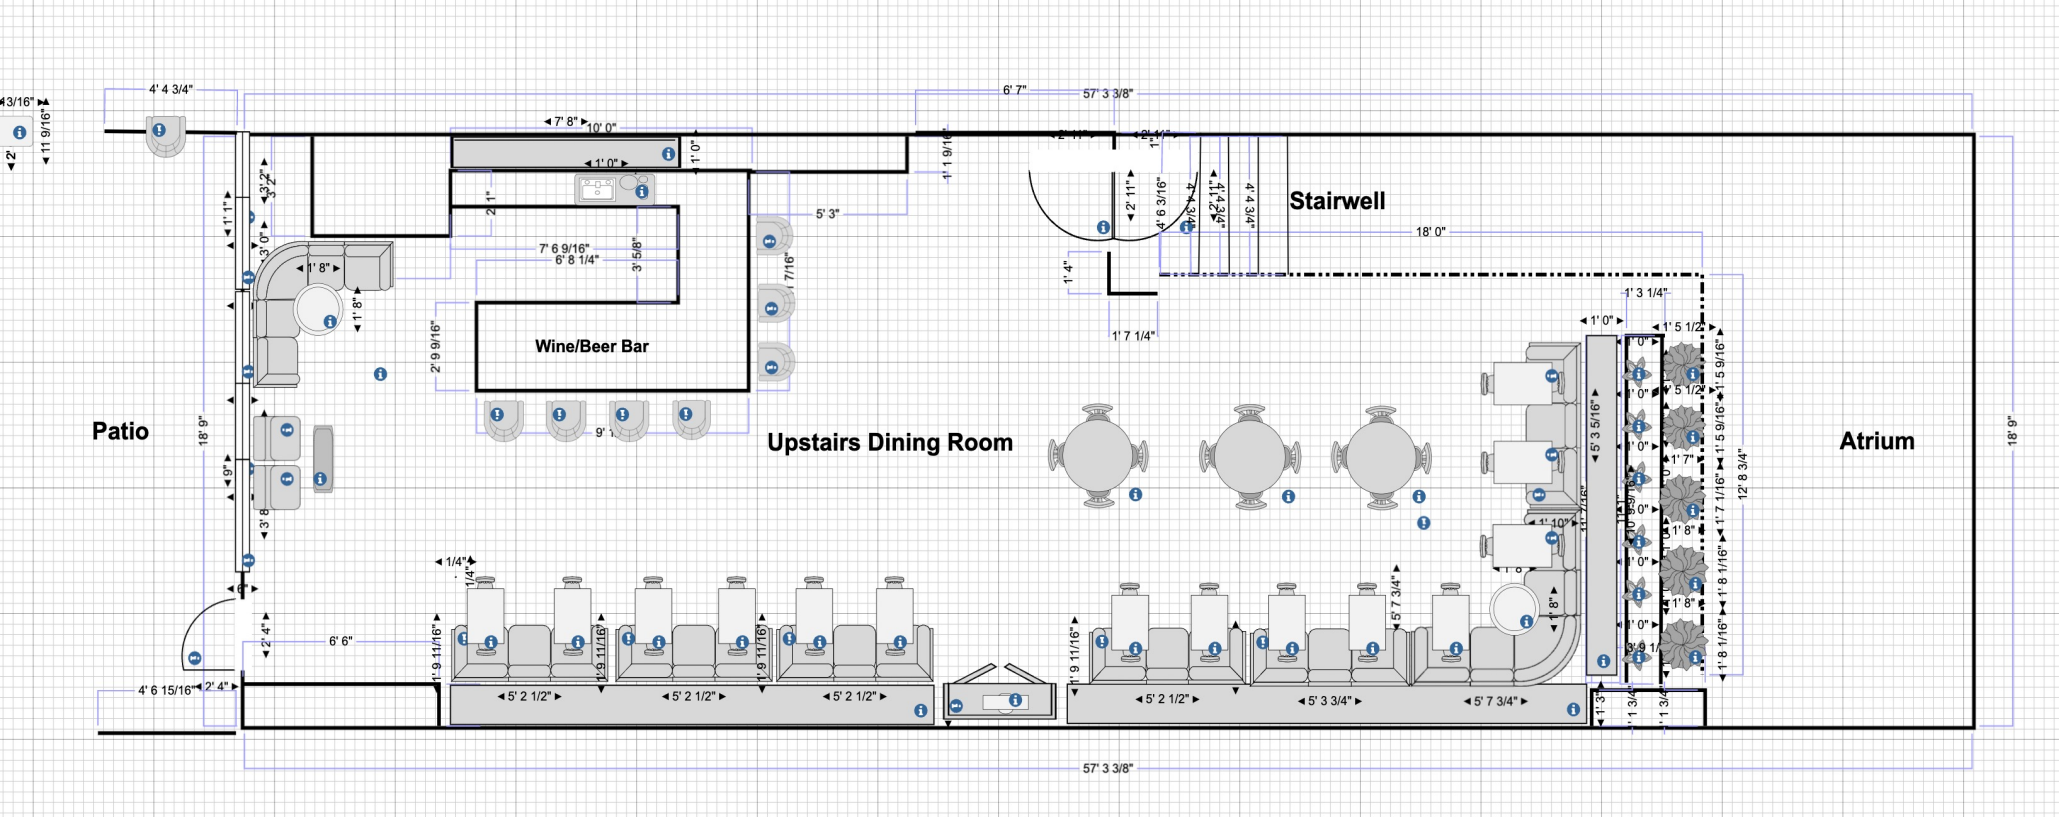

Sincerely,

Adam Block

Finland Finds Being in NATO Is Complicated

Working Out Finances
and Tricky Logistics

By STEVEN ERLANGER

HELSINKI, Finland — Barely a year after Russia's invasion of Ukraine, Finland cast aside decades of military nonalignment and self-reliance and joined the NATO alliance.

That happened with breathtaking speed, as these matters go, but gaining membership may have been the easy part. Now comes the complicated process of integrating itself into the alliance and its requirement of collective defense — with all of its financial, legal and strategic hurdles.

"Joining NATO is an expensive business, and supporting Ukraine is an expensive business, and there's no end to that in sight," said Jarmo Kausela, director-general for defense policy at Finland's Ministry of Defense.

Membership in NATO has long been considered a cheap benefit, given the American nuclear umbrella and the principle of collective defense. But NATO also has extensive requirements of its members — not just spending goals for the military, but specific demands from each country for certain capabilities, armaments, troop strengths and infrastructure as defined by the Supreme Allied Commander in Europe.

Achieving that will demand some difficult and costly decisions from the government and military officials as they learn to think

AID FOR UKRAINE STOKES U.S. FEUD OVER THE BUDGET

SHUTDOWN IS LOOMING

Senators in Intense Talks as McCarthy Tries to Ease House Chaos

By CARL HULSE
and CATIE EDMONDSON

WASHINGTON — With the House in chaos over its spending plans, senators of both parties were deep in negotiations on Monday over efforts to head off a government shutdown this weekend through a stopgap measure and whether to include additional aid to Ukraine in the legislation.

Senators and senior staff members engaged in intense discussions over the past few days on how to proceed given the legislative impasse, officials said, with Senate taking steps toward an emergency spending bill that would keep dollars flowing to federal agencies after the current fiscal year ends at midnight Saturday.

People familiar with the talks said a major sticking point was whether to add up to $25 billion in new assistance to Ukraine, which is formally known as a continuing resolution or to keep the legislation free of contentious provisions in what would be a "clean" measure that might enjoy broader support among Republicans in the
