| Reports From Elected Officials   |   |
|--|---|
| NYS Senator Liz Krueger, presented by Dana Schmerzler           | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Two of the Senator’s bills related to climate change were passed: the Climate Change Superfund Act (which will use the polluter-pay model to collect $75 billion over 25 years from the industries that create pollution) and the Tropical Rainforest Economic &amp; Environmental Sustainability (TREES) Act.</li> <li>● The State Senate also passed the Senator’s bill that requires all mopeds to be registered and licensed.</li> <li>● The Senate also passed Senator Krueger’s bill to update the definition of aggravated harassment, in the second degree, to include contacts via text, private message, direct message, email or other electronic communication.</li> <li>● Our office came out with a very detailed statement today on the Governor's decision to delay the implementation of congestion pricing and believes that it is a staggering error that will create a financial crisis for the MTA board.</li> </ul> |
| Manhattan Borough President Mark Levine, presented by Yiyi Wang | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Nearly 100 new and refurbished restrooms will be made publicly available in the next few years – 28 of which will be in Manhattan.</li> <li>● Our office is also in discussions about creating a residential parking permit program.</li> </ul>  |
| District Attorney Alvin Bragg, presented by Eric Strazza        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● A modified version of the Hate Crime Modernization Act was included in the final adoption of the State budget. As a result, New York State’s original Hate Crimes Act of 2000 will be updated to include 23 additional offenses, better equipping it to address the range of hate crimes being committed in New York. Offenses that can now be prosecuted as hate crimes include Gang Assault, Sexual Abuse, and Falsely Reporting an Incident.</li> <li>● For the 3rd summer in a row, our office is funding a Youth Gun Violence Prevention Initiative.</li> </ul>   |
| NYS Senator Brad Hoylman-Sigal                                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● I hope to pass a bill in the next 48 hours that will lower the quorum requirement for Community Board meetings. I don’t know if we will get it past the Assembly.</li> <li>● We are finally going to move the helipad out of the Hudson River Park and onto a floating barge. A Task Force will be convened to ensure this happens, and MCB4 members will be included in the Task Force.</li> <li>● I’m passing a bill this week called Stop Hiding Hate Act to hold social media companies accountable for the content on their platforms.</li> <li>● I am very disappointed in the Governor’s announcement to delay congestion pricing indefinitely.</li> </ul>  |

|--|--|
| NYS AssemblymemberLinda Rosenthal,presented by Griffin        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● The Assemblymember is proud that her bill was just passed that requires all large places of public assembly to have an epipen on hand and to have someone trained to use it.</li> <li>● The Assembly also just passed unanimously yesterday Rosenthal’s bill requiring insurance companies to cover scalp cooling devices for patients receiving chemotherapy treatment for cancer. These FDA approved devices are already covered by Medicare and Medicaid so now they will be covered for patients with private insurance.</li> </ul>   |
| US CongressmanDan Goldman, presentedby Tevin Williams         | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● The Congressman introduced a bill to increase the federal Medicaid-eligible inpatient psychiatric beds for individuals who are seeking treatment for both mental health and substance use disorders. Many of you know we see so many unhoused, mentally unwell people on the streets, and this bill is designed to address this at the federal level.</li> <li>● The Congressman cosponsored the ‘Child Care Small Business Insight and Improvement Act’ to expand the U.S. Small Business Administration’s role in supporting for-profit childcare small businesses across the country.</li> </ul> |
| Public AdvocateJumaane Williams,presented by CurtisYoung | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Happy Pride to everyone and happy Caribbean Heritage Month. If you are interested in joining our office as we march in the many Pride events this month, please follow us on social media and sign up to join us. We would love to have you join us!</li> </ul>   |
| NYC Mayor EricAdams, presented byRobin Forst                  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Pleased to report that there has been an increase in City funding for youth programs. Computer science, civics classes and restorative justice programs which had been funded by federal stimulus money will now be funded by the City. Also, the Summer Rising program is being expanded this summer as it had its funding restored.</li> <li>● The City has also announced a summer enforcement strategy to help remove illegal motorized scooters and mopeds from our streets and sidewalks.</li> </ul>  |
| NYC CouncilmemberGale Brewer                                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● It looks like we finally have the attention of the Sheriff who has recently closed 3 illegal cannabis shops. We will continue to follow this issue closely to make sure that lots more get closed down.</li> <li>● Thanks to Jesse Bodine for helping to arrange a walk-through of the 56th-59th street areas to focus on the graffiti that needs to be cleaned up. Our interns will be helping us coordinate that clean-up work this summer.</li> <li>● We are also compiling a list of all of the public bathrooms that don’t work in our District so that we can get them repaired.</li> </ul>   |
