	Presentation Midtown South and Midtown North NYPD Community Council
Delorse Rubin Brian Webber	 Midtown South and Midtown North NYPD community council representatives Delorse Rubin and Brian Webber. NYPD community council is a monthly meeting opened to the public. All are invited to attend. Topics may include security, drug enforcement, homeless encampments, and various community concerns. Sector meetings are divided by geographic locations.

Public Hearing Annual District Needs and Budget Requests
Roberta Barnett	 No members from the public signed up to speak.

Public Session
Mike Noble	• For reference, to remind the public that the NYCHA Board of Director and HUD approved the demolition of both NYCHA housing campuses recently. That meeting is available on their YouTube channel, at the 56 minute mark and includes timeline and details of the project.
Emily Li	 Representative from the Korean Community Services. Addressed that fast food and sugar is attributing to death and diabetes in children that are targeted by fast food restaurants in low income areas. Asks the community to support Intro 06421 by calling their city council representatives.
Jason Ginburg	 Sharing a success story from seeking assistance from CB4 regarding FreshDirect trucks blocking the street access and sidewalk. Citibik stations were installed and has proven to be successful alternative.
Lisa Wagner	FIT update and upcoming calendar of events.
Alexia Cruz	 Opposes the demolition of the NYCHA complex. Upset that elected officials are not responding to end demolition.
Renne Kett	 Opposes the demolition of the NYCHA complex. Believes a special application panel should be the approval process and not the NYCHA board. Seeks relocation clarification and not be switched to different plan.
Jesse Greenwald	 Addresses the election outcome and reminds the community to stay involved and connected. Even at the local level, community assistance is available and reminds everyone they are not alone.

Reports From Elected Officials
NYS Senator Brad Hoylman-Sigal	 I am grateful and honored to have been re-elected last night with the most votes of any Democratic senator who ran for re-election last night. Congestion pricing must be implemented. We can not let this crucial funding disappear. Route 9A needs to be improved, and my colleagues and I have urged the state to make the critical improvements. Unlike the East side which has a storm resiliency plan in place, there isn't such a plan for the west side corridor that runs along the Hudson. I am very proud of my Glock Switch Bill, which the Governor signed. It is the first of its kind in the nation. It requires gun manufacturers to make certain that their devices aren't compatible with machine gun conversion devices. The Board of NYCHA voted to approve the agreement to proceed with the redevelopment of the campuses. There is not nearly enough money available in the City or State budgets to do the repairs so we need innovative solutions like this to address the awful conditions. We will continue to focus on ensuring that the tenants are protected in every way possible.

NYS Assemblymember Linda Rosenthal	 I am grateful to be re-elected last night and grateful to be the Assemblymember in Manhattan who received the most votes. One area of deep concern is Trump's plan to create a national abortion database. I have a bill, the NY Privacy Act, that will protect the privacy of sensitive health data. Most people don't know that if they use an app to track any health issues (e.g. a period tracker) their data isn't protected right now. We need to change that. Project 2025 talked about eliminating HUD. My proposed bill to create housing access vouchers is more important than ever, and has lots of support across housing interests. I am working to get better reimbursement rates for health clinics across the city. Ryan Chelsea Health Clinic, like many other indispensable clinics, is under considerable strain right now.
Manhattan Borough President Mark Levine, presented by Yiyi Wang	• The MBP's office is proud to release a new Senior Resource Guide to help ensure that New Yorkers can age in place and live independent lives in the community where they belong. This 50+ page comprehensive guide is designed to help seniors and their families navigate the services and programs available across all 12 of Manhattan's Community districts such as senior centers, health and nutrition, transportation, housing and legal assistance.
	• For the second year in a row, we are excited to open applications for our Manhattan Future Leaders Fellowship, designed specifically for high school juniors and seniors. The deadline to apply is Dec. 1.
NYS Senator Liz Krueger, presented by Dana Schmerzler	 Senator Krueger is very happy that Proposition 1 regarding the ERA was passed yesterday in the election. A big priority is getting congestion pricing passed. We are hosting several events in the coming weeks, including talks about Medicare, how to protect yourself against scammers, and a 4-part series about housing. Please see our web site for details.
NYC Mayor Eric Adams, presented by Robin Forst	 No formal presentation this month but happy to answer any questions.

	Nomination Committee

The candidates were each interviewed by the Nominating Committee on October 24, 2024, except for Katy Stokes.
