RE: Public Interest Statement for Class Change Application

The issuance of this license will serve the public interest for the following reasons:

1. This establishment offers the community with a unique concept featuring a Korean influenced tapas restaurant coupled with excellent service for their guests. Along with supporting the community, this establishment offers the theater district and theater goers with an option for dinner as well.
2. This establishment also supports the local economy by providing 12 jobs to community members. Receiving the liquor license will help this establishment continue to provide these jobs to community members.
3. The premises is currently licensed with a beer, wine and cider license. Previously, the premises was licensed with a full liquor license for over 25+ based on corporate records. The previous entities holding liquor licenses include Annalisa Italia LTD and Chi Va Cha Viene LLC; some d/b/a's include La Rivista and Broadway Joe's Steakhouse.
4. While operating with the beer, wine, and cider license, this establishment has received multiple inquiries about hard liquor available at its bar from local community guests and other patrons. Some patrons walk out of the establishment once they hear that the establishment cannot serve hard liquor. To stimulate economic growth, it is pertinent that the establishment be able to retain and serve patrons and meet their needs and expectations.
5. This establishment provides significant taxes to the state and the city of New York monthly.
